MODERN MUSIC MASTERS

The Modern Music Masters is a club for those students interested not only in music, but in the basic history of the art of singing. Its purpose is to encourage young people to appreciate good music and to learn to use their voices in the proper way. The Music Masters have done much this year for CHS in that they have raised a great deal of the money for the organ fund.

Clubs Choose Officers for 1958-1959

The Junior Red Cross, a service organization sponsored by Miss Lena Wilhelm, freshman and sophomore English instructor, has recently elected officers.

They are: president, Barbara Glantz; vice president, Sandra Slocum; secretary, Marilyn Thompson; treasurer, Gail McClelland. The representatives are Sharon Beck and Lee Ellen Wright. Other members include Diane Amundson, Cindy Granger, Harry Shank, Carol Chesbro, Judy Weidenback, Grace Moran and Karen Scanland.

Quill and Scroll, advised by Mr. Paul Shaler, is an honorary journalism society composed of those students who have met the requirements of membership. The members are Rich Aegerter, Susie East, Margie Brown, Kathy Forsyth and Penny Price. There are no officers in this organization.

The officers for the A Cappella Choir are as follows: president, Gail Andreen; secretary, Theresa Burns; treasurer, Judy deHaan; publicity, Penny Price; and fundraising, Rosemary Foster. The choir's first concert will be on December 11.

The Modern Music Master's Society is an honorary music organization open to those students who have done solo or ensemble work in the field of music. The officers are: president, Judy Rucker; vice president, Dwight Johnson; secretary, Christina Goodale; and treasurer, Ben Willis. To be eligible for this club, a student must have been enrolled in a CHS music course during the previous semester.

Senior Tri-Hi-Y has recently selected new members. Seniors are Emily Delasalas, Jackie Dong, Diane Douglas, Christina Goodale, Barbara Haynes, Paige McKenney and Letitia Thomas. Juniors are Joan Bauslaugh, Carolyn Craven, Marge Engel, Anne Goodbody, Kathy McCarthy, Camille Morris, Polly Phillips, Melodie Rappae, and Dot Whitman.

Music Masters, Art Club Tell Members, Plans

The Modern Music Masters, established from the National Music Honor Society in 1952, initiated seven new members last Tuesday night. The new members are Gail Andreen, Sharon Beck, Emily Delasalas, Christina Goodale, John Morgan, Ben Willis, and Joan Woodard.

"To help our members gain experience, a solo clinic is being organized in which our members will perform for others of the group," said Polly Phillips, a charter member.

The chief aims of the society are to foster greater interests in band, orchestral, and choral performances and to provide wider opportunities for personal musical expression and service to the school, church, and the community.

Requirements Told

The selection of students for membership is strictly on a merit basis. Ability and scholarship in both music and academic subjects, and cooperation with teachers and fellow students are basic requirements.

Art Club

The Art Club is now busy preparing for Homecoming by creating posters to place along the halls and in store windows up town.

Other products made by the members are pep ribbons which are sold for a dime prior to the games. "A future project of the Art Club will be the designing and painting of the scenery for the All School Play," said Mr. Charles Leudtke, art instructor.

Last year an outstanding artist was chosen for each month. The club chose this person on the basis of his or her art work, and how much the work had improved over a period of time. They hope to continue with this program in December.

Organ Fund to Pay For Baldwin Organ

The installation of the new Baldwin organ, a gift in memory of Mrs. Arthur Porter, will be paid for by the High School Organ Fund. This fund was started a little over a year ago by the students of the music department, and at the present time it totals almost $1000.

Sponsorship by the Choir and Glee Club of two recitals by the Helen Reynolds Dance Studio netted about $425. At these recitals the music students worked as backstage helpers and as ticket takers, ushers, and stage workers. A benefit concert by the Choir and Glee Club last spring added almost $100 to the fund. A bake sale boosted the fund by $65. Gifts from interested individuals and organizations in Coronado totaled $90. One check was received from a former Coronado resident now living in Spain who had learned of the fund from a newspaper story.

At a luncheon Tuesday, a check for $300 was presented to the fund by the Soroptimist Club which raised this money at a barbecue dinner held during the summer.

In the near future, the organ will be available for practice by music students. "The credit for the success of the Organ Fund," said Mrs. Elizabeth Huser, sponsor of the Choir and Glee Club, "belong to the many students who worked hard at all our projects, and to the Coronado organizations and townspeople who shared their enthusiasm."

Choir, Band Music Masters

Spring concerts, music festivals, and organ sessions are in store for the music students at CHS.

Modern Music Masters, their next meeting slated for late March, are continuing the Organ Fund Drive, which the club started last year. To date, $375.61 is in the fund's treasury in the A.S.B. office. The organization is also aided in the drive by the A Cappella Choir, Band, and Girls' Glee Club.

"We are coming along fine on the project," Mrs. Elizabeth Huser, club sponsor, stated. At least $2500 is needed for the new organ.

Modern Music Masters is also slating an organ session for the last of March, when all members will learn about the organ, and how to play it, also.

Band, Choirs End Season

With a final "oom-pah-pah!" and "do-re-me," the musicians of CHS are quieting their vocal cords and disassembling their instruments this school year. But what have these minstrels accomplished during the 1958-59 season?

Yuletide found the carolers, under the direction of Mrs. Elizabeth Huser, singing about ol' Saint Nick before business and civic groups, and parents and friends. They performed for over ten organizations during the season. Then, of course, came the climax—the Christmas concert.

The 15-piece orchestra, conducted by Mr. Paul Henneberg, also played before business and school groups during the reign of Santa Claus (?).

Then with the Christmas vacation over, the musicians went back to work—this time with spring concerts to plan.

Before the choirs could practice these songs, the San Diego County Choral Association invited the Islanders to join 700 other singers at the festival in Ocean-side.

Then, back to work!

The fruits of their effort were shown to the public May 13, and to the student body, June 2. Their Spring Concert had another purpose, too! With the admission prices, the choirs added nearly one hundred dollars to the Organ Fund.

Except for the Senior Ensemble at graduation, the A Cappella Choir and the Girls' Glee Club completed their slate of activities.

With the announcement of Mr. Henneberg's resignation from CHS, the instrumentalists started planning for THEIR Spring Concert, the first one in five years and the last under the leadership of Mr. Henneberg.

And as May 28 rolled around, the Bandsmen had put the finishing touches on what many considered "the very finest such concert given at Coronado in quite a long time."

Then with their playing at the football games (and marching at Homecoming), "blowing" at the pep tryouts, and the climaxing of their season by staging the Spring Concert, the instrumentalists and Mr. Henneberg bowed out of the music picture at CHS this year.

Organ is gift to CHS

A Baldwin Model 5A concert organ has been presented to the Coronado School District by Arthur A. Porter, 344 A avenue, as a memorial to his wife, Echo Jewel Porter, who died recently.

The gift was received by the School Board at a recent meeting and the organ and speaker have been moved into the High School Building.

Plans for installation of the organ are underway, supervised by Ed Borgens of the Borgens Music Company. Plans include the use of three speaker cabinets and an echo speaker cabinet. All installation is on a temporary, movable basis so that all speaker equipment can later be installed permanently in a new auditorium.

Costs of installation are being paid for by the High School Organ Fund, a fund which was started a little over a year ago by the students of the High School. Money in this fund was raised by various projects sponsored by the students as well as gifts from individuals and organizations.

The fund at present is about $400 short of the necessary amount needed for proper installation of an instrument of this caliber.

The organ will be used by both the vocal and instrumental departments to augment the music programs and student assemblies. It will also be available for practice for students who are studying organ.

Plans for dedication ceremonies will be announced later.

CORONADO JOURNAL
September 10, 1959

The goal of the Modern Music Masters and the department of music at Coronado High was reached much sooner than anyone dared hope when an organ was given to the school.

The Organ Fund, a major project of the Music Masters, had grown far beyond the expectations for its first year when nearly $600.00 was raised through bake sales, two benefit dance recitals, the spring choral concert, and private donations. Even with this good start, however, the organ could not have been purchased for at least two more years.

Memorial Organ Given To Coronado Students

A concert organ has been presented to the Coronado school district by Mr. Arthur A. Porter as a memorial to his wife, who died recently. It was received by the school board at a recent meeting.

The organ and speaker are now in the high school. Three speaker cabinets for the stage and an echo speaker cabinet for the balcony will be temporarily installed with the help of Mr. Ed Borgens of Borgens Music Company. Everything is temporarily installed so all speaker equipment can later be installed permanently in the new auditorium.

Cost of installation is being paid for by the High School Organ Fund, which still lacks about $400. Money in this fund is raised by various projects sponsored by students and gifts from individuals and organizations.

The organ will be used by both the vocal and instrumental departments to augment the music programs and student assemblies. It will also be available for practice for students who are studying organ.

14 Are Included In Dance Band

Fourteen people have just been chosen to be in the new dance band. The rhythm section includes John Bergstedt, Jim Drake and Scott Fisher. Craig Callister, Gerry Freese, Hugh Littlebury and Bill Madden will be the trumpet players while Dave Hansen and Bill Price will play the trombones. The saxophone players will consist of Don De Fay, Iwashita, Bill Lowry, Bob Matthews and Bud Smith.

The main purposes of the dance band are to help the members learn to play dance music, to give the more musical students a chance to play and enjoy different kinds of music, and probably to play for school dances later in the year. It is also for the benefit of the students of CHS and the community.

Mr. Sanders will be the sponsor and direct the rehearsals but the group will choose a student director for all performances.

Vice Pres. in 1960

Choir Elects Burmeister

Max Burmeister, a junior, was recently elected president of the A Cappella Choir. Senior, Teresa Burns was elected secretary of the choir for this year, and Marsha Patterson, a junior, was chosen as treasurer.

This year, the choir under the direction of Mrs. Elizabeth Huser has 54 members. The choir is open to members of all classes.

As in past years the choir will present a Christmas concert. This will be the first program of the year.

The choir will be enhanced by a new organ which has been donated to the school by Mr. Arthur Porter.

Bigger Band Practices Marching, New Songs

Students having their fifth period class in the library wing of the main building or in the junior high building are perhaps the ones who are most aware of the changes in the 1959-60 band program. Under the direction of Mr. Lauren Sanders, the band and majorettes rehearse fifth period every day.

On Mondays and Tuesdays, the band practices inside, learning new songs and perfecting old ones. Then, on Wednesdays, Thursdays, and Fridays, they march over to Cutler Field and rehearse the formations for halftime.

As the result of a School Board ruling which allows students to take band instead of physical education, the size of the band has increased considerably since last year.

At the first three home games of the season, the band played from the sidelines, but at the fourth, they gave a marching exhibition during halftime. At all games after that, four or five formations have been executed during the half. The band also marches out before the game and plays the "Star-Spangled Banner" in a block formation on the field.

At tonight's game, the band will play excerpts from around 20 numbers. A special comedy routine, plus several formations, including the one during which the Homecoming Queen and Court are crowned, will be presented.

The High School band, as well as one of the Navy bands, will provide the music for the Homecoming Parade.

A Cappella Choir Gives Concerts

In a split assembly before the high school student body this morning, the choir and Girls' Glee Club sang both traditional carols and selections from Handel's "Messiah." Coronado High's new organ also took a bow, backing the choir on the processional, recessional, and on "Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring," a four-part hymn by Bach.

After a performance aboard the USS Dixie this evening, the choir will temporarily "retire" until school reconvenes in January.

"We have been pretty busy lately," commented Mrs. Huser, "but in spite of the hard work, we've all had fun. The members of the choir have represented Coronado High School as good will ambassadors; their behavior reflects the behavior of the entire high school."

If you look out of your window at about 5:30 this evening, you will probably see groups of green figures fluttering down the streets. Green ghosts? No, just members of Coronado High's A Cappella Choir hurrying to the city Christmas pageant.

The choir, under the direction of Mrs. Elizabeth Huser, has been busily running back and forth between concert engagements for the past three weeks.

On December 3, A Cappella began its Christmas season with a performance for the Coronado Newcomers' Club. Since then, (with cries of "I can't find my robe!" and "Where are all the tenors?") concerts have been presented before the City of Coronado, (in the pageants and tree-lighting ceremonies) the Methodist Women, and the Coronado Rotary and Kiwanis Clubs.

New Pep Band Plays at Games, Assemblies

The newly reorganized pep band, under the direction of Mr. Lauren Sanders, has played for all the games and pep assemblies during this year's basketball season.

Members of the pep band and their instruments are:

Ron Roberts, Bruce Botten, clarinets; Melver Moore, Eddie Washita, saxophones; Bill Madden, Bob Lewis, trumpets; and Gerry Freese, Dave Hanson, trombones. Other members are Jim Drake, tuba; and Tom Reilly and Mike Vaughn, drums.

An industrious group, they have done most of their practicing outside of school hours—after school or at noon—as the entire band must work on concert numbers during their class practice time.

Mr. Sanders has said that at future games, he hopes that the band can do some precision close order marching. He said that this is very impressive and will be something new for halftime.

Modern Music Masters Have Coronado Club

Modern Music Masters is a national honor society for students participating in vocal or instrumental music. There are 455 chapters in the United States, two of which are in this area—one at Grossmont High School and one at Coronado High School.

Coronado's chapter, No. 394, received its charter in May, 1958. There were nine charter members. Senior Polly Phillips is the only charter member still in school.

In order to be eligible for membership in the organization, a student must have a "C" average in his academic studies, a "B" average in his music classes, and must be regularly enrolled in a performing musical group such as A Cappella Choir or band.

The club's first initiation ceremony for the year will be held some time in the middle of October. Members-elect are Max Burmeister, Pat Flaherty, Patty Moser and Cammy Wesson.

Activities planned for this year include a solo clinic to give performers more self-confidence, and a study of the electric organ.

Choir, Students Take Part In Holiday Presentation

The Coronado Chamber of Commerce is sponsoring the Christmas Pageant, which was held Monday and Wednesday, and will be held this evening at 5:30 p.m. The performance will be given under the giant lighted tree on Orange Avenue, facing onto Isabella Avenue.

The A Cappella Choir, directed by Mrs. Elizabeth Huser, will sing traditional Christmas songs depicting various portions of the Christmas story, as tableaux are formed by students from Mr. Richard Wymann's speech classes and the Thespian Club.

First, the choir will enter the stage area from across the street, singing "O Come All Ye Faithful." Next, Mary and Joseph will enter and take their places on one of the two stages, as the Reverend Crawford Grays, a retired Coronado minister, reads a selection from the Christmas Story. The choir will then sing "Silent Night."

As the Reverend Grays reads again from the scriptures, an angel appears to the four shepherds who are gathered on the first stage. The shepherds move to the other stage, and take their places in the Nativity Scene, while the A Cappella Choir sings "Angels We Have Heard on High."

To conclude the story, the text of the story returns to the first stage and the throne room of King Herod, where he is shown sending the three Wise Men on their journey. They arrive and, falling on their knees in adoration of the Child, offer their rich gifts to Him.

After this scene, the lights go out and the choir recesses, singing "Joy to the World."

Choir, Glee Club and Carolers in Festivals

The Coronado High School A Cappella Choir, Girls' Glee Club, and Carolers have participated in two choral festivals in the past two weeks.

On Wednesday, March 30, the Carolers, the CHS choral ensemble, attended the Southern California Vocal Association Ensemble Festival held at San Diego State College. About 25 singing groups participated in the festival, some from as far away as Los Angeles and San Bernardino.

The Carolers sang two songs, for which they received ratings of "excellent" and "superior." The festival was their first appearance in their selected outfits—the boys in dark suits with red ties, and the girls in dark skirts, white blouses, and red blazers.

On April 1, the members of the A Cappella Choir and Girls' Glee Club sang in a massed 1000-voice chorus at the ninth annual San Diego County Choral Concert at Oceanside High School. Conducted by Jester Hairston, a well known musician, the chorus rehearsed all morning, presented an assembly for the Oceanside students in the afternoon, and gave a concert for the public at 8:00 p.m.

Amphibious Base Auditorium Donated For Hi-Jinx

The Amphibious Base Auditorium has been donated to Coronado High School for this year's Hi-Jinx. The variety show is to be held April 2 at 8:00.

Captain Kait, commanding officer of the base, offered the base auditorium because the high school's auditorium has been condemned for any public activities.

The annual show was nearly canceled because of lack of time between the All School Play and senior play to prepare for it. However, Kay Weisgerber, Commissioner of All School Activities, worked steadily on the show plans while Mr. Wyman, dramatics director, completed the All School Play. At present both Kay and Mr. Wyman are working on the variety show.

Admission to the show will be 80c for adults, 40c for children and an ASB card for Coronado High School students. Chairman of the ticket committee is Linda Schug.

Tryouts for the Hi-Jinx were held on March 17, 18 and 21.

Other Hi-Jinx committee members are Commissioner of Public Relations Ces Godbout, publicity; freshman representatives, Sarah Pugh and Jimmy Duke; sophomore representatives, Pam Spense and Mike Goodbody; junior representatives, Marlene Herz and Bob Rumney; and senior representatives Steve Lindsay and Susie Hervey. The representatives were chosen by the respective class cabinets.

The Choir Ensemble had just finished recording several songs on Mrs. Huser's tape recorder and were listening to the play back when, just as the last note died away, Jan Friddle's voice, unmistakably loud and clear, declared "... and all these people can be cured by the wonders of modern medicine." Seems like Mrs. Huser was using the same tape that Jan had used, as a frosh taking Public Speaking, to record a speech. The ensemble really sounded good. . . .

Destroyer Tender No. 14, the U. S. S. DIXIE, is the second commissioned vessel in the United States Navy to bear that name.

The first DIXIE, a vessel of 6,114 ton displacement, was purchased on 15 April 1898 from the Morgan Line, whose flag she flew under the EL RIO. The EL RIO was commissioned in the Navy as the DIXIE on 19 April 1898, and served successively as auxiliary cruiser, training ship, patrol vessel, destroyer tender, and repair ship. After an eventful career, she was decommissioned at the Navy Yard, Philadelphia, 30 June 1922 and sold shortly thereafter.

The first DIXIE established an enviable record for service as destroyer tender. The second DIXIE (AD-14) was commissioned at the Navy Yard, Philadelphia, 25 April 1940, to carry on that tradition for service.

PREFACE

The demands of the service and the forces afloat have dictated the need of many auxiliary types of ships in the U. S. Navy. One of these is the Destroyer Tender, Type AD.

The U. S. S. DIXIE (AD-14) is the first of five ships of her type now in the fleet. AD's normally tend eighteen DD's: four, four-ship Divisions and Two Leaders. DE formations are larger. The primary function of the DIXIE is to overhaul, maintain, and replenish as required, destroyers and other ships assigned to her.

This booklet is dedicated to those ships whom the DIXIE will serve in the hope that through it the DIXIE may serve you better.

Choir, Glee Club and Carolers in Festivals

The Coronado High School A Cappella Choir, Girls' Glee Club, and Carolers have participated in two choral festivals in the past two weeks.

On Wednesday, March 30, the Carolers, the CHS choral ensemble, attended the Southern California Vocal Association Ensemble Festival held at San Diego State College. About 25 singing groups participated in the festival, some from as far away as Los Angeles and San Bernardino.

The Carolers sang two songs, for which they received ratings of "excellent" and "superior." The festival was their first appearance in their selected outfits—the boys in dark suits with red ties, and the girls in dark skirts, white blouses, and red blazers.

On April 1, the members of the A Cappella Choir and Girls' Glee Club sang in a massed 1000-voice chorus at the ninth annual San Diego County Choral Concert at Oceanside High School. Conducted by Jester Hairston, a well known musician, the chorus rehearsed all morning, presented an assembly for the Oceanside students in the afternoon, and gave a concert for the public at 8:00 p.m.

Amphibious Base Auditorium Donated For Hi-Jinx

The Amphibious Base Auditorium has been donated to Coronado High School for this year's Hi-Jinx. The variety show is to be held April 2 at 8:00.

Captain Kait, commanding officer of the base, offered the base auditorium because the high school's auditorium has been condemned for any public activities.

The annual show was nearly canceled because of lack of time between the All School Play and senior play to prepare for it. However, Kay Weisgerber, Commissioner of All School Activities, worked steadily on the show plans while Mr. Wyman, dramatics director, completed the All School Play. At present both Kay and Mr. Wyman are working on the variety show.

Admission to the show will be 80c for adults, 40c for children and an ASB card for Coronado High School students. Chairman of the ticket committee is Linda Schug.

Tryouts for the Hi-Jinx were held on March 17, 18 and 21.

Other Hi-Jinx committee members are Commissioner of Public Relations Ces Godbout, publicity; freshman representatives, Sarah Pugh and Jimmy Duke; sophomore representatives, Pam Spense and Mike Goodbody; junior representatives, Marlene Herz and Bob Rumney; and senior representatives Steve Lindsay and Susie Hervey. The representatives were chosen by the respective class cabinets.

The Choir Ensemble had just finished recording several songs on Mrs. Huser's tape recorder and were listening to the play back when, just as the last note died away, Jan Friddle's voice, unmistakably loud and clear, declared "... and all these people can be cured by the wonders of modern medicine." Seems like Mrs. Huser was using the same tape that Jan had used, as a frosh taking Public Speaking, to record a speech. The ensemble really sounded good. ...

It is requested that each ship pick up C.S.M.P. Book and Repair Requests before 1530 of the same day.

PROGRESS OF WORK

DIXIE will advise Commanding Officers of any work that cannot be completed by RFS date.

COMPLETION RFS DATES

These dates are normally assigned by the operational Commander. It is the responsibility of the repair force of the tender to complete all work undertaken in sufficient time for tests and lighting off. It is the responsibility of the ship's Commanding Officer that all ships force work on main machinery is completed by RFS date assigned.

COMPLETION OF WORK REQUESTS

After completion of work, a copy of the work requests will be forwarded to the ship with all pertinent data noted thereon. Original work request will be kept in DIXIE files for a period of one year.

It is designed to simulate actual sea conditions of the attacking ship and submarine, providing instruction for conning antisubmarine attacks, and training in the use of sonar echo ranging equipment. Also available is a course of instruction in refresher training in ASW of about four (4) days.

Assignment of attack teacher on Q. F. L. periods while in the San Diego Area are made by COMCRUDESAPAC in his weekly operation order. Ships desiring additional training may make arrangements with the command concerned.

The Choir Ensemble had just finished recording several songs on Mrs. Huser's tape recorder and were listening to the play back when, just as the last note died away, Jan Friddle's voice, unmistakably loud and clear, declared "... and all these people can be cured by the wonders of modern medicine." Seems like Mrs. Huser was using the same tape that Jan had used, as a frosh taking Public Speaking, to record a speech. The ensemble really sounded good. ...

man has received to date. In case of previous admission for similar episodes the health record should be made available to the medical officer.

LABORATORY WORK

In case of those ships having personnel "requiring" blood serology (Kahns) examinations, the Medical Department representative will contact the Senior Medical Officer aboard this ship for appointment. Only a limited number of examinations can be performed. For that reason personnel who merely "desire" an examination should be withheld until a destination having more adequate facilities is reached. Other studies available include blood counts, urinalysis, sedimentation rate, and some stool specimen studies.

RE-ENLISTMENT AND INSURANCE FORMS

Send men over prior to 0900 with health record and shipping articles. A NavMed Form H2 will be completed in the rough and returned to ship for typing in the smooth forms and for entry on NavMed H8 and then returned to this ship for signature of the Medical Officers. Insurance forms should be completely filled out except for the page for physical examination.

MEDICAL SUPPLY ISSUE

X-RAY facilities aboard are limited. Chest X-Ray examinations will be performed on only those men who have history of previous definitely suspicious parenchymal involvement or those suspected having same at the time. Routine Photofluorgraphic examinations are available ashore.

TRANSFERRING PATIENTS FOR TREATMENT

Do not transfer patients for treatment prior to consultation with the medical officer unless in the case of emergency. There will be cases of venereal diseases that require time and repeated examinations to diagnose. In these instances, do not effect transfer of patients to this ship with an undetermined diagnosis of chancroid, syphilis, etc., until seen in consultation by a medical officer.

DENTAL DEPARTMENT SERVICES

EMERGENCY TREATMENT

Appointments for routine dental examinations and treatment will be made by the Chief Hospitalman, or his representative. This can best be accomplished by the Medical Department representative making arrangements in person with the Dental Officer, furnishing the number of patients and the types of treatment deemed necessary. Appointments will then be scheduled on an equitable basis.

PROSTHETIC DENTAL TREATMENT

Prosthetic Dental patients will be appointed in the same manner as for routine examination and treatment. The Dental Record (NavMed H-4) must accompany all patients for dental treatment.

Choral Groups Participate In County Concert

The Coronado High School A Cappella Choir and Girls' Glee Club took part in the Choral Concert held in the Oceanside High School Auditorium last Wednesday.

Secular, Easter, folk, and sacred music was sung at this Eighth Annual San Diego County High School Choral Concert.

During the day, the combined county groups rehearsed together under the direction of Jester Hairston, noted director and song arranger. All participating choirs had been learning the music used in this program for months before this date.

That evening the 1000 participants performed before a large public audience in the Oceanside Auditorium.

"It was a tremendously exciting experience to work with such a fine director as Jester Hairston," said Mrs. Elizabeth Huser, director of both Coronado Choral groups.

PTA Helps Clothe Cavaliers

Recently the Cavaliers, the high school stage band, gave a concert to the P.T.A. This group was so impressed by their playing, that they decided to pay half the cost of uniforms for the band. The band members will pay for the other half.

The uniforms consist of a white dinner jacket, white shirt and black slacks. This, with the new bandstands, gives the band a professional look.

The Cavaliers have been practicing every Tuesday and Thursday from 5:00 to 7:00 on such tunes as: "Autumn Leaves," "Blue Tango," "Stardust," "Where or When" and, of course, "Peter Gunn."

Recently the Cavaliers elected Eddie Iwashita as their band front. A band front is a member of the band who starts off each tune.

Island Band Rated High In County Music Contest

The Coronado High School band, under the direction of Mr. Lauren Sanders, participated in a county band contest on Friday afternoon, March 4, at Hoover High School.

The band played three numbers: "Percussion in Review," "Soliloquy," and "Kentucky—1800." The panel of judges awarded two of these numbers as excellent and the other one as superior.

Several small band ensembles also participated in the contest. The clarinet quartet, composed of Don Defay, Levana Gray, John Neilson, and Eileen O'Halloran, received a superior rating from the judges' panel.

The brass sextet, whose members are Jim Drake, Gerald Freese, Hugh Littlebury, Bill Madden, Bill Price, and Mary Jo Weisgerber, was rated as excellent by the panel.

The saxophone quartet received a rating of superior for its playing. Members of the saxophone quartet are Ed Iwashita, Richard Lowry, Bob Matthews, and Bud Smith.

Mary Jo Weisgerber performed a french horn solo and was accompanied by Kay Weisgerber at the piano.

Choral Groups Participate In County Concert

The Coronado High School A Cappella Choir and Girls' Glee Club took part in the Choral Concert held in the Oceanside High School Auditorium last Wednesday.

Secular, Easter, folk, and sacred music was sung at this Eighth Annual San Diego County High School Choral Concert.

During the day, the combined county groups rehearsed together under the direction of Jester Hairston, noted director and song arranger. All participating choirs had been learning the music used in this program for months before this date.

That evening the 1000 participants performed before a large public audience in the Oceanside Auditorium.

"It was a tremendously exciting experience to work with such a fine director as Jester Hairston," said Mrs. Elizabeth Huser, director of both Coronado Choral groups.

PTA Helps Clothe Cavaliers

Recently the Cavaliers, the high school stage band, gave a concert to the P.T.A. This group was so impressed by their playing, that they decided to pay half the cost of uniforms for the band. The band members will pay for the other half.

The uniforms consist of a white dinner jacket, white shirt and black slacks. This, with the new bandstands, gives the band a professional look.

The Cavaliers have been practicing every Tuesday and Thursday from 5:00 to 7:00 on such tunes as: "Autumn Leaves," "Blue Tango," "Stardust," "Where or When" and, of course, "Peter Gunn."

Recently the Cavaliers elected Eddie Iwashita as their band front. A band front is a member of the band who starts off each tune.

Island Band Rated High In County Music Contest

The Coronado High School band, under the direction of Mr. Lauren Sanders, participated in a county band contest on Friday afternoon, March 4, at Hoover High School.

The band played three numbers: "Percussion in Review," "Soliloquy," and "Kentucky—1800." The panel of judges awarded two of these numbers as excellent and the other one as superior.

Several small band ensembles also participated in the contest. The clarinet quartet, composed of Don Defay, Levana Gray, John Neilson, and Eileen O'Halloran, received a superior rating from the judges' panel.

The brass sextet, whose members are Jim Drake, Gerald Freese, Hugh Littlebury, Bill Madden, Bill Price, and Mary Jo Weisgerber, was rated as excellent by the panel.

The saxophone quartet received a rating of superior for its playing. Members of the saxophone quartet are Ed Iwashita, Richard Lowry, Bob Matthews, and Bud Smith.

Mary Jo Weisgerber performed a french horn solo and was accompanied by Kay Weisgerber at the piano.

Band to Have 19 New Uniforms By October 14

The Coronado High School band is acquiring 19 new uniforms. The cost of $1,000 is being paid by the school board. The uniforms will probably be worn first on October 14, for the La Jolla football game.

Playing during the football games and at the half-time is the band's major activities during football season. Since there are five home games out of the first six, only one week is spent in rehearsing for each program.

Getting ready for half-time activities requires studying different diagrams for the various formations, rehearsing the music, going through all the formations first without playing instruments and then playing instruments, and having a dress rehearsal the night before the performance. The dress rehearsal requires a special practice each week on Thursday nights.

Newly elected officers of the band include Dave Hansen, president; Gerald Freese, sergeant at arms; Ruth Botten, music librarian; and Eileen O'Halloran, secretary.

The band consists of 61 people this year. Almost half of the band is made up of freshmen. The 28 freshmen include Richard Ackler, Cecil Alexander, Cheryl Anderson, Rich Appleton, Anthony Arceneaux, Larry Becht, Sam Bennett, Virgil Bernat, Kenny Brown, Bruce Campbell and Alan Freese.

Other freshmen in the band are Liebe Gray, Russell Gray, Loren Harris, Katherine Kephart, Mark Kipperman, Francine Lovata, Sam Martinez, John Mathew, Dennis McGormen, Sharon Mitchell, Gary North, Carol Reese, Bob Satterford, Bob Smith, Elizabeth Treacy, Charles Van Valkenburgh and Gerry Weland.

David Bakker, Dennis Dorman, Drew Gallahar, La Vance Gray, Richard Lowry, April McCord, Melner Moore, John Nielsen, Eileen O'Halloran, Bill Price, Bill Reiter, Karen Schoenfeld, Elnora Smith, Hattie Mae Stanes, Mike Vaughan and Richard Verneti are the 12 sophomore members of the band.

The eleventh-graders in band include Ken Bandel, Ruth Botten, David Hansen, Arnold Kruger, Hugh Littlebury, William Lowry, Bill Madden, Bud Smith, Richard Smith, Bill Smith, Bill Tucker and Mary Jo Weisgerber.

John Bergstedt and Gerald Freese are senior band members.

Also included with the band are Lorraine Jenkins, Jane Huser, Susan Long and Patsy O'Halloran, the majorettes.

Four new trombones and one new double-belled suphonium have been added to the band. A double-belled suphonium is like a baritone with two bells and five valves.

1960 Ensemble Announced

The new ensemble for this year was announced by Mrs. Elizabeth Huser, A Cappella director.

Sopranos who were chosen are Cammy Wesson, Sharon Beckstrom and Marsha Patterson. The altos are Leslie Geisinger, Barbara Juquin and Patsy O'Halloran.

The boys include John Bland, Kent Crawford and Barry Hedden, tenors and Lynn Peterson and Max Burmeister, basses.

The 11 members of the ensemble are also A Cappella choir members, but the ensemble practices separately one evening a week.

Among the activities tentatively slated for the group are its appearance in the San Diego County Ensemble Festival in the spring and all other choir programs.

A school-wide contest is being held to select a name for the ensemble.

Four Choir Members To Sing With Opera

Four CHS choir members were honored by being selected to sing in the "La Tragedie Humaine," an opera written by Darius Milhaud, who will arrive from France in December to direct it. The program will be December 20, in the Russ Auditorium.

Cammy Wesson and Sharon Beckstrom, sopranos, Barbara Juquin, alto, and Max Burmeister, bass, are Coronado's representatives to the choir. Also singing in this hundred-voice group are semi-professionals, singers and high school students from all over San Diego County.

Mr. Milhaud will conduct both the choir and the San Diego Orchestra, which will combine to premiere "La Tragedie Humaine" (The Human Comedy). Milhaud is also on the staff of Mills College every other year.

CHS Choir to sing for Rotary

Coronado High School Choir will sing at the Rotary Club's luncheon meeting next Wednesday in Hotel del Coronado. The a cappella choir, directed by Mrs. Elizabeth Huser, will present 10 programs for school and civic groups during the holiday period.

On Christmas Day the choir will be heard on KGB's "Christmas Carousel" program. The 50-voice group has also recorded its Christmas music on a souvenir LP record.

Student Rotarians for six weeks are CHS Seniors Terry Viele and Leo Hansen.

Past Rotary President Dr. James P. Verneti was one of 11 who received Silver Beaver scouting awards at a recent Balboa Park council meeting.

Featured at the choir program next week will be a chorale from Bach's Christmas Oratorio, O Holy Night with Cammy Wesson as soprano soloist and special arrangements of traditional carols.

Leslie Geisinger will be the soloist in "Beautiful Savior." By popular request of Rotary members the choir will repeat its arrangement of "Twelve Days of Christmas." The program will conclude with the singing of the Hallelujah Chorus from Handel's "The Messiah." Piano accompanists will be two freshmen, Diana Miller and Dona Keith and Senior Marsha Patterson.

The Coronado High School choir was organized 10 years ago by Mrs. Huser. Its membership averages 50 each year, with over half of the number seniors.

High School choir sets Christmas concert

The soprano solos will be by Lorie Updegrove, alto by Nona Freeman and James West will present tenor solos.

The choir will be accompanied by organist Mrs. Bea Hoskins and Mrs. Virginia Hewitt Fisher will accompany on piano.

A concert of Christmas music will be presented by the Coronado High School choir and Girls' Glee club, under the direction of Mrs. Elizabeth Huser, for parents and friends at 8 p.m. on Tuesday, in the Central Elementary School auditorium.

The program will feature such traditional favorites as "I Heard the Bells on Christmas Day," "O Holy Night," and the choir's special arrangement of "The Twelve Days of Christmas." A chorale from Bach's "Christmas Oratorio" will open the program and the "Hallelujah Chorus" from Handel's "The Messiah" will be the concluding number.

Featured soloists include Cammy Wesson, Patsy O'Halloran, Leslie Geissinger, Sharon Beckstrom and Max Burmeister piano accompanists will be Marsha Patterson, Don Keith and Diane Miller. Cheryl Howard will accompany on the organ.

The Girls' Glee club will be heard in a selection of carols and a special group of songs will be presented by the Carolers, a selected ensemble.

Students to sing on radio

A total of 98 students of the Coronado public schools will broadcast on Radio Station KGB between 3 and 4 p.m. Christmas Day. The High School Choir, the Junior High School Choir and a brass ensemble of the High School will perform Christmas music during the annual Christmas Carousel Broadcast.

Choir to present concert on lawn

The Coronado High School A Cappella Choir, without an auditorium to present its yearly Christmas assembly, will give a "promenade concert" on the lawn of the Central Elementary School at 2 p. m. tomorrow.

The public concert will close with the Hallelujah Chorus from The Messiah. A cappella choir alumni have been invited to join in the singing of the final number.

Choir Prepares for Seasonal Concerts

"Gossip, gossip, (or any other form of usual jibber) evil thing! What unhappiness it brings." Unhappiness, that is, to the A Cappella Choir director, Mrs. Elizabeth Huser as D-Day for the first concert approached. The choir was scheduled to give their first concert on December 1.

This performance was not their first actual performance of the year, but the first one in front of an audience. The group has recorded a tape of their Christmas carols this year. As advertised, these records will be available before Christmas vacation, December 16.

Out of the goodness of her heart, Mrs. Elizabeth Huser donated her home, her organ, and her time and effort to make this year's choir's record possible. The choir members, out of the goodness of their hearts (perhaps), also contributed individually, their patience and effort. At the three hour recording session, Sunday evening, November 29, eating was not encouraged but ice water was supplied. Everybody was hungry, naturally.

Featured this year will be the traditional Hallelujah chorus, during which choir alumni are expected back this year to sing with the choir. Though the effect of this number is not supposed to be especially jazzing, choir members sometimes find it hard to keep from flying off the rafters. Certain members, encouraged to calm down a bit, now confine their exuberance to lightly pounding their big toes on the rafter floors.

Also to be featured this Christmas season will be the "Carole of the Bells," the choir's giggle jingle. The choir can find no reason to laugh during this piece, except perhaps Mrs. Huser's occasional expressions which seem designed particularly to induce mirth. Chimes will also accompany the the choir for this song.

A Cappella Choir Finishes Season With Concert After School Today

The A Cappella Choir has had a busy annual concert season.

They started early this year, singing on December 8 for the Women's Society of Christian Service at the Methodist Church. On December 12, 14, and 16, they sang in the Christmas Pageant and on December 12 they gave another public performance in the Junior High Auditorium. On December 14 they sang for the Rotary Club and today they sing for the student body.

Soloists are Cammy Wesson, singing the old traditional "Oh Holy Night," Leslie Geissinger, singing "Beautiful Savior," Max Burmeister, singing Jesu Bambino, which is to the tune of "O Come All Ye Faithful." Patsy O'Halloran solos in "The Shepherd" and Sharon Beckstrom solos also.

The traditional songs which will be performed before the student body are the "Hallelujah Chorus" and the "Twelve Days of Christmas." In this song the choir will perform the actions, which make it a favorite every year.

"Break Forth Christmas Morn," by Bach, will be done by the choir.

The choir finds itself without a place to present its traditional Christmas assembly due to the demolition of the old building.

In order to bring its music to the students, the choir will give a Promenade concert of Christmas music on the lawn of the Central Elementary School at 2 p.m. on Friday, December 16. Parents, students, and friends are invited to this short informal concert. As is traditional, the program will close with the Hallelujah Chorus and the choir alumni are invited to join the singers.

OUR LADIES. (GOD BLESS 'EM).

One hundred and twenty Rotarians, Rotaryans and guests enjoyed the wonderful Ladies Night Dinner last Wednesday. A new group, 'The Coronado 5' (no relation to 'Coronado 9'), of the Coronado High School was loudly applauded for their singing of folksy songs. Mrs. Bettie MacInnes presented: Pat Flaherty, Cammy Wesson, Robert Rummey, Kent Crawford and Dan Appleton. CHARLIE JAMES told us about their high scholastic standing and athletic prowess.

Rotaryans made the evening sparkle and pleasurable to all. One of our new members, JACK GODIN and his lovely IRENE attended. She's pretty. WARD DeBECK, who gave the invocation and MARION were there. We caught JUNE NOTTINGHAM telling ARCH'S LUCIA of her purchase of a yard of goods that she thought was priced at .75¢, the clerk said $7.50. A bottle of smelling salts finally got JUNE on her feet. And so the evening passed in fellowship at its best. Prexy BEN and SIDNEY, Veep PAUL and EULADEAN were seated at the abbreviated table. BEN welcomed all hands and read a fine Rotary item from a Miami paper. Veep PAUL, who is campaigning to relieve BEN in July, glared daggers at BOB PLUMB who was decked out in an exotic garment something like JOE OVERTON wears bi-ennially. The singing for BOB STEED'S birthday was good, thanks to our Rotaryans. BRIS BRISTOL and JOE CUTRI were loudly applauded for arranging such a perfect and delightful evening of pleasure for all of us.

Prexy BEN suggests that you bring your Rotaryann to enjoy this fine treat with you.

A collation of ice-cream and cake will be served the choir at the end of the program.

DARIUS MILHAUD

French composer to premiere work at Russ; 120 voices aid

Presenting the American premiere of his own work, "La Tragedie Humaine," Darius Milhaud will come to San Diego to conduct the San Diego Symphony Orchestra in this 5-movement work including an 120-voice Symphonic Chorale composed of the finest local voices that could be assembled. The choir will include several Coronado High School students.

This concert will be in Russ Auditorium at 8:30 p.m. Tuesday.

"La Tragedie Humaine" for Chorus and Orchestra, based on the poetry of a 16th century Huguenot poet and historian, has live moments subtitled, "Miseries," "The Golden Chamber," "Fires," "Vengeances," and "Judgements." The work was commissioned by the French government as their contribution to the Brussels World's Fair where it had its world's premiere in 1958.

The Symphonic Chorale, under the direction of Robert Henniger, has been in rehearsal for some months in preparation for the Christmas week program.

In the first half of the program, Earl Bernard Murray will conduct his orchestra and for the distinguished local pianist, Lyell Barbour, who will play Chopin's Second Piano Concerto in F Minor. Also, the orchestra will play Malcolm Arnold's "English Dances" and Wagner's Prelude to "Die Meistersinger."

The local critics have saluted Mr. Murray for unveiling an orchestra this season "that sits on the doorstep of greatness." Many family groups are making reservations for this exciting American premiere for San Diego. Tickets are available at Thearle's Box Office, 640 Broadway, BE 9-8122.

A round trip charter bus will leave Coronado in front of the Glorietta Bay Hotel prior to the concert. For further bus information, contact Miss Vivien Nelson.

Real estate takes sharp drop here

Real estate transfers in the Coronado area dropped from 24 in October to 8 in November.

The above statistics were compiled for Trends, monthly real estate publication of the Union Title Insurance Company. James C. Downs, Jr., editor of the publication and head of Real Estate Research Corp., Chicago, stated in this month's issue that the trend in real estate continued downward across the nation. Real estate sales in San Diego during November were off 8.6 per cent from October. Mortgage lending for November was off 6.8 per cent from the previous month. The number of building permits for November fell 36.6 per cent below the October total; number of evictions increased 29.8 per cent over October.

The USS Enterprise, the world's first nuclear-powered aircraft carrier, is 1101 feet in length, 252 feet in extreme width and displaces 85,350 tons, making it the largest ship in the world. It won top honors the last two years and is shown on page 2.

Crowds hail Yule pageant--contest entries to close

Outdoor lighting to be judged Sunday

Final presentation of Coronado's Christmas pageant will be held at 5:30 tomorrow evening under the 5-foot Yule tree at Orange and Isabella.

Sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce, the pageant includes choir music by Coronado High School singers, Nativity tableaux by actors from the school, dressed as kings, wisemen and shepherds and a reading of the Christmas story by the Rev. Crawford Grays.

The first show, Monday night, was witnessed and acclaimed by a large number of parents and children. It was also presented last evening and will have its final performance tomorrow.

The pageant is a colorful, short half-hour reminder of the meaning of Christmas.

Winding up the Chamber of Commerce sponsored Yule activities is the annual outdoor decorating contest. Entry blanks (see page 2) must be in the chamber office by tomorrow. Judging will take place on Sunday.

Prizes will be given for the best outdoor decorated and lighted houses in three categories: 25-foot lot, 50-foot lot and over 50-foot. In addition, the best block on one street will be selected and all residents of that block who decorate their homes outside (whether they enter the contest or not) will be given theater tickets from the Coronado Playhouse.

The contest was initiated by the chamber to make Coronado one of the best holiday attractions in the Southland. The house that won top honors the last two years is shown on page 2.

CHRISTMAS PAGEANT—Coronado High School Choir sings Christmas songs as high school actors perform age-old Christmas story, while Dr. Crawford Grays (not pictured) reads Bible account of the birth of Christ. The pageant, sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce, was put on Monday and Wednesday nights at the Christmas tree at Orange and Isabella. Last performance will be at 5:30 tomorrow evening. Large crowds have turned out to see the second annual presentation of the pageant.

DARIUS MILHAUD was born at Aix-en-Provence on September 4, 1892. His paternal ancestors were Jews settled in Provence since before the Christian era; his mother was a Sephardic Jewess from Italy. He grew up in familiarity with a living religious and human tradition of ancient lineage.

Milhaud has been an active composer for more than forty-five years. He was one of the original "Six" along with Georges Auric, Louis Durey, Arthur Honegger, Francis Poulenc, and Germaine Tailleferre, young composers who, associated artistically with Erik Satie and Jean Cocteau, supplied—along with Stravinsky and Ravel—much of the ferment and vitality that made the musical Paris of the 1920's a world center. In later years Milhaud went to Rio de Janeiro with the great writer Paul Claudel, when the latter became French Minister to Brazil. (It was as a result of his sojourn in Brazil that Milhaud wrote such familiar works as the SAUDADES DO BRASIL and LE BOEUF SUR LE TOIT.)

Upon the fall of Paris to the Germans in 1940, Milhaud and his family escaped to Spain and the U.S. From 1940 to the end of the war, he made his home in the U.S., becoming connected with Mills College in Oakland, California. Since 1947, he has crossed the Atlantic many times. He now alternates his years in France with years in California. Past his sixtieth birthday, Darius Milhaud remains one of the key figures in contemporary music as well as an active citizen of the modern world.

is as well known in London and New York as he is on the West Coast and has played in San Diego many times with our orchestra, with the Los Angeles Philharmonic, in the Bowl, and in recital. Thirty years ago because of poor health, he came to Escondido to join his father. After recovering, he so liked the area that he made it his permanent home. In these years, he has gone on concert tours and has taught piano to hundreds of pupils finding teaching very rewarding because of his vast musical experience which he can pass on to his students.

Mr. Barbour remembers, nostalgically when he was at the height of his studies many years ago in New York and ran out of funds. A singer's agent contacted him quite by chance to try out as accompanist for Margarita D'Alvarez. He did and the result was that he toured all over Europe with her gaining priceless experience and having many doors opened to him in his concert pianist career. Mr. Barbour will play Chopin tonight. Although there is no record of musical people in his family, his grandmother was Polish like Chopin and Chopin is one of his favorite composers.

"This is the 150th anniversary of Chopin's birth so Mr. Murray and I chose this Chopin concerto for this concert," he noted.

PROGRAM NOTES

Prelude to "Die Meistersinger"

by Richard Wagner

"As from the balcony of my flat, in a sunset of great splendor, I gazed upon the magnificent spectacle of Golden Mainz, with the majestic Rhine flooding its outskirts in a glory of light, the PRELUDE to my "DIE MEISTERSINGER VON NURNBERG" again suddenly made itself closely and distinctly felt in my soul. I wrote down the prelude exactly as it appears in the score today, containing the clear outline of the leading themes of the entire drama. I proceeded at once to continue the composition, intending to allow the remaining scenes to follow in due succession." In these words Richard Wagner tells us of the spring of 1862 and the beginning of the actual composition of his great comic opera "The Mastersingers of Nuremberg." It is characteristic of his creative process, involving years of "mental composition," that before pen was laid to paper, all, or most, major decisions had been made. Thus, it was neither accident nor momentary inspiration enabling him to start with the prelude "containing the clear outline of the leading themes of the entire drama." Even more, his incredibly skillful manipulation of these themes compresses into some nine minutes of orchestral prelude and atmosphere, characters and plot of an opera requiring almost four hours to unfold on stage.

English Dances (First Set)

by Malcolm Arnold

Tonight brings the name of Malcolm Arnold, composer of the "ENGLISH DANCES," to our programs for the first time. Born in Northampton in 1921, educated at the Royal College of Music, for several years principal trumpet of the London Philharmonic Orchestra, Malcolm Arnold is widely regarded as one of the most gifted of the younger British composers. These four short dances were written in December, 1950, and the following June, Arnold added a second set. Although deliberately assuming a folk-music flavor, the dances are entirely of Arnold's own invention. The harmonic vocabulary is decidedly conservative, to conform to the nature of the work, with occasional piquant touches of modal harmony. The brilliant orchestration is characteristic of Arnold's work in general. Perhaps the most remarkable thing about the "English Dances" is that the composer dares to write pleasant-sounding music of cheerful optimism in direct contradiction to the majority of his colleagues.

Piano Concerto No. 2 in F Minor

by Frederic Chopin

Poland's greatest composer, and a pianist of legendary fame, Frederic Chopin was born near Warsaw in 1810, thus making 1960 the Chopin Sesqui-Centennial. The PIANO CONCERTO No. 2 dates from his youth, being completed in 1829 and first performed in Warsaw in 1830. As much as one may regret the over-emphasis placed on Chopin's love-life, particularly in the liaison with George Sand, in novels and motion pictures, this concerto offers evidence that such romantic effusions are not entirely groundless. He wrote: "I have, perhaps to my misfortune, found my ideal. For the past six months, I have dreamed of her each night but have not yet addressed to her a single word. It is in her honor that I have composed the larghetto (the second movement) of my concerto." The "ideal," a singer named Constantia Gladowska, who inspired this beautiful movement seems to have faded from Chopin's dreams before the next movement was finished, for we find the concerto dedicated to yet another Polish beauty, Countess Delphine Potocka.

SAN DIEGO MAGAZINE

from "Les Tragiques" of the 16th century poet Agrippa d'Aubignue, was commissioned by the French government as their contributoin to the Brussels World's Fair where it had its world premiere in 1958. Tonight marks the American premiere of "La Tragedie Humaine." The work is in five movements: "Miseres," "La Chambre Doree," "Les Feux," "Vengeances," and "Jugement." We are indebted to the noted French scholar, Dr. Leonard Messier of San Diego State College for the following comments on "Les Tragiques" of Agrippa d'Aubigne and for those passages selected by Darius Milhaud for inclusion in "La Tragedie Humaine."

Les Tragiques

The poem is very uneven in its composition. It is nevertheless an outstanding example of original poetry in a century when personal or original poetry was practically non-existent. It reveals the heart and soul of a man who is often too passionate, too violent, too proud to be fair in his condemnations of his fellowmen but one who nevertheless must be admired for his courage and his sincerity.

To appreciate d'Aubigné's poem one must remember that as a Huguenot the author was very familiar with the Bible and that he constantly relates the events of the Scriptures to the events of his times. The tyrants mentioned in Les Tragiques refer to the rulers of 16th century France. The chosen people of Israel refers to the Reformed Church. Like the prophets of the Old Testament he is filled with the presence of Jehovah and it is with the conviction that he speaks for Jehovah, that d'Aubigné describes and condemns in a biblical style the persecutions, disasters and misfortunes of his co-religionists.

I. Miseres

Reveals through a series of dramatic tableaux and realistic descriptions the misfortunes which afflict the good and humble inhabitants of the Earth (used here as a symbol for France torn asunder by civil wars). The Earth is unable to ward off the criminal deeds of tyrants but it sympathizes with those who suffer, consoles and protects them.

II. The Golden Chamber

This canto constitutes one of the most bitter satires ever to appear in French poetry. The poet cries out his indignation by means of passionate invectives which remind one of those appearing in Dante's Divine Comedy. He castigates the dishonesty of those who render justice. He also warns that punishment is close at hand and begs the Lord of Heaven to make haste.

III. Fires

Recalls the fate of the just who died for their religious beliefs. God, horrified at such persecutions, repents for having created the world. In his wisdom he permits the tyrants to pursue their careers unhampered. He cannot however, remain at peace with them and abandons them to their wickedness.

IV. Vengeance

Again the passionate poet gives vent to his indignation. His wrath knows no bounds and he portrays a vengeful God wishing to destroy his world. God's fury is imitated by the elements: Air, Fire, Water, Earth which in turn condemn the wicked for their turpitudes and participate in the destruction of the world.

V. Judgment

Following the end of the world comes the very skillful and poetic description of the resurrection, the Last Judgment presided over by God and his angels and the rewarding of the Elect who are forever assured of honor, peace and joy.

BEHIND THE SCENES AT THE SYMPHONY

Do you know?

that last year the men and women playing in our symphony earned less than $900 each.

which is why professional musicians in San Diego county need other jobs.

if your company has employment opportunities please let our office know and we will be happy to put you in touch with a highly qualified person.

Do you know?

that the Amsterdam Concertgebouw Orchestra we are bringing here May 23 is considered one of the world's three greatest orchestras by many critics?

Do you know?

that for every dollar you spend on a ticket to a symphony concert it actually costs two dollars to put the orchestra on stage? That's right! We only can raise half the cost of giving a concert through ticket sales—that's why we need to solicit contributions from individuals and from business firms. Otherwise we'd have to charge twice as much for tickets as we do now!

Do you know?

what the critics said about our opening concert:

Alan M. Kriegsman (Union): "Earl Bernard Murray unveiled for us a new orchestra; one that sits on the doorstep of greatness."

Ken Eisler (The Independent): "... miraculous rebuilding of our city's symphony orchestra ... dramatic improvement."

Evening-Tribune: "... a triumphant opening ... a performance with grandeur ... "

CORPORATE GIFTS

The San Diego Symphony Association is pleased to acknowledge the increasing support of business and industry. The corporate sponsors listed here reflect the growing recognition of the importance of the orchestra and its high cultural value to the economic well-being of the community. They also reflect the splendid work of the Business and Industry division of our Sustaining Fund Drive. For this, we extend our grateful thanks to each and every committee member, with a special word of appreciation for the leadership of Ralph J. Phillips, Chairman.

B. Hedden and B. Price To Perform at M.E.N.C.

Barry Hedden and Bill Price have been selected to represent Coronado in the Western division of the Music Education National Conference. The M.E.N.C. will be held during Easter vacation in Santa Monica.

Five states make up the western division of the contest: California, Hawaii, Nevada, Oregon, and Utah, and participants are selected on the basis of their recommendations from their music instructors.

Barry, a senior who has been in the A Cappella choir for two years, will be one of a chorus of 300.

The district contest, held every two years, was held in Salt Lake City in 1959. Polly Phillips, Dwight Johnson, and Ben Willis were the Coronado delegates.

Bill, a sophomore, is the first Coronadan ever to be chosen to play in the 100 piece All Contest orchestra. It will be directed by Mr. James Nielson, who conducts the Oklahoma City University band and choir.

Barry and Bill will leave for Santa Monica March 26 and will rehearse every day until the evening of Wednesday, March 29, when they will present their program. Students participating in the conference whose homes are in Santa Monica, will provide housing.

Birthday party for Woman's Club

The Coronado Woman's Club will celebrate its 14th birthday at 2:30 p.m. on Thursday at the club house. Mrs. R. D. Kirkpatrick and her co-chairman Mrs. J. S. Abbott have planned a luncheon to which each club member attending has been asked to bring a gift, not necessarily new. These items will be sold at the annual party and bazaar on May 10th.

One of the highlights of the luncheon will be the paying off of notes to several of the members who loaned money to the club's building fund for construction of the club house. These notes will be drawn from a model of the club.

Mrs. J. N. MacInnes, program chairman for the luncheon, has asked the "Coronado 5" to play during the affair.

"This is a very talented and popular harmonizing group who specialize in American Folk songs and novelty numbers. The members, all of whom are High School students, are Pat Flaherty, Cammy Wesson, Dan Appleton, Robert Rumney and Kent Crawford. Dan Appleton accompanies the group on the guitar," Mrs. MacInnes said.

Band Wins Top Rating In All-County Festival

The Coronado High School band received a rating of "superior" for its performance at a county festival sponsored by the Southern California Band and Orchestra Directors Association on March 13.

This rating will enable the band to participate in the regional competition to be held at Los Angeles.

The band played three numbers at the festival, which was held at Clairemont High School. They were "Marcho Poco," "Air and March," and "Renaissance Suite."

The rating of "superior" was the highest possible rating that could be received at the festival.

Ensemble Festival

On February 24, 11 soloists and ensembles participated in the Solo and Ensemble Festival held at El Cajon Valley High School.

A rating of "superior" was awarded to Mary Jo Weisgerber, who performed Mozart's "Fourth Horn Concerto in E-flat Major"; and to the percussion quintet, who played "Percussionata."

Six Coronado entries were awarded a rating of "excellent" for their performances. They were the clarinet quartet, playing "Quartet in F"; the flute quartet, playing "Danse Capriole"; the french horn quartet, playing "Introduction and Scherzo"; the trombone quartet, playing part four of the "Suite for Trombones"; and "Canzonetta," a clarinet solo by Levana Gray; and "Romanze," a trombone solo by Dave Hansen.

The Coronado ensembles received ratings of "good." They were brass sextet number two, playing "Trumpet Voluntary," trumpet trio number one, playing "King's Heralds," and trumpet trio number two, playing "Sonatina."

Parade Planning

The band has several activities planned for the next weeks. On Saturday, March 11, the band will march in a parade sponsored by the Rotary Club. This parade will feature international students, dressed in their native costumes.

On March 16, a brass ensemble will play for a meeting of the Parent-Teachers Association.

CHS Ensemble Takes Second Prize In Talent Search

The Coronado Ensemble, under the direction of Mrs. Elizabeth Huser, won second prize in the Marston's Teen Club's "Search for Talent Show", February 18. They received a twenty-five dollar gift certificate from the Marston Company.

Competing with the Ensemble were eleven other acts representing the various high schools in the San Diego area. The Knightsmen, a rock 'n roll band from Kearny High School, won first prize which was a fifty dollar gift certificate from Marston's.

A repeat performance was given last Saturday in the Pavilion Room of the Grant Hotel. After a fashion show featuring Betty Barclay, the Ensemble sang, "The Sound of Music". Then refreshments were served and dancing followed, with music by the Kearny Knightsmen. Mr. John Gentry from Radio 600, KOGO, and Miss Joan Marston were the emcees.

Choir, Girls' Glee To Sing in Concert

The Coronado A Cappella Choir and Girls' Glee Club will participate in the tenth annual San Diego County Choral Concert on March 15, at Escondido High School.

The combined choir will consist of approximately 900 people from county high schools and junior colleges and will be conducted by J. Dayton Smith, head of the Music Department at San Diego State College. Howard Brubeck is scheduled to be piano accompanist.

Rehearsals will take place all day and at 8:00 a concert will be presented in the Escondido High School auditorium. The concert will be open to the public with no admission charge.

All the choirs have been learning the same music, which includes selections from "Bach to Broadway." The "Crucifixus" from Bach's B Minor Mass, "Kyrie Eleison" from the Imperial Mass by Haydn and "The Sound of Music" are some of the songs featured.

Hedden, Price Attend M.E.N.C.

Barry Hedden and Bill Price were the Coronado students selected to participate in the concert sponsored by the Western Division Music Educators National Conference in Santa Monica Civic Auditorium, March 29.

The Western Division of the M.E.N.C. is composed of California, Hawaii, Nevada, Oregon and Utah. The conference had three divisions: band, conducted by James Nielson of the Oklahoma City University in which Bill played the trombone; chorus, directed by John Bloom of the University of Arizona in which Barry sang tenor; and orchestra, under the direction of Gerhard Samuel of the Oakland Symphony Orchestra.

The participants arrived March 26 and stayed in the homes of Santa Monica High School students, although they were served their meals at the Santa Monica High School Cafeteria.

On Sunday the participants were registered, had an orientation program, and then divided into the three branches for chair tryouts. Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday were spent in rehearsal.

On March 29 at 8:00 the concert, which lasted an hour and a half, was presented. The dollar admission went to the M.E.N.C. fund to cover the cost of operations. Planning of the concert was begun before Christmas. After the concert the group had a special dance in their honor.

Choir Goes To Festival

"Light and Shade," "There is a Spirit," and "Glory Be to God" are the three songs the A Capella Choir will present at the vocal festival at Oceanside on May 19.

The entire choir will sing, along with eight other choirs from the Los Angeles, Long Beach, and San Diego areas. Each of the choir's three songs will be rated and criticized by a panel of judges.

This festival corresponds to the Ensemble Folly at San Diego State last month. It will start at 7:30 p.m. and last about three hours.

The choir's schedule for the rest of May includes a concert for the Elementary School on the 10th, an ensemble presentation for the P.T.A. on the 18th, and an ensemble and band presentation on the 24th.

Band Rated Excellent In Long Beach Contest

"Hey, pass the cookies." "I wan'na go back to bed." "You're sitting on my lunch!" Remarks such as these could be heard coming from the interior of the Greyhound bus as it slowly pulled away from CHS on Friday, April 28, at 8 o'clock in the morning.

The bus carried 55 members of the CHS band and their instruments to the Regional Finals in Long Beach at Wilson High School to compete against approximately 60 other high school bands from Southern California. A "superior" in the district finals at Claremont enabled the CHS band to attend the Regional finals.

Mr. Lauren Sanders, band master, directed the band through Marcho Poco, two opera selections, and The Renaissance Suite to an "excellent" rating. The band played two new band publications by sight and received a "superior" rating in that division, giving them an overall rating of "excellent."

Mr. Saunders expressed an eagerness to go to the Regional finals again next year if the band qualifies.
